Face Scrub – code no. 2410

Features	Sel des Alpes is ideal for exfoliation. It crystallizes into small grains and stimulates microcirculation and cell regeneration while removing impurities from the skin through its cleansing and balancing effect. The special formula of this facial scrub gently cleanses the skin. When combined with water, the scrub turns into velvety-soft milk and moisturizes your skin. In aromatherapy, the essential oil of the Damascus rose is said to have a regenerating effect on the skin. It is of 99.43% natural origin.
Instructions for use	Apply to dry skin once or twice a week and massage the face in circular motions. Moisten the face with a little water and continue massaging. Rinse off with water.
